ARTS FOR ALL!

Alongside the main stage performances, Celebrity Series' Arts for All! community engagement programs reach over 10,000 individuals annually, through master classes with main stage artists in public schools and conservatories; hands-on, interactive workshops for youth led by a core group of Boston area artists; free community concerts in Boston neighborhoods; free and discounted tickets to main stage performances; and large-scale, public participatory performance projects.

Neighborhood Arts will sponsor 85 workshops/classes and 14 concerts in schools and community venues in Dorchester, Hyde Park, Mattapan, Roslindale, Roxbury and the South End. New projects for 2016-2017 include two Stringfests with composer-violinist Shaw Pong Liu, tabla player Sandeep Das, and four Dorchester and Roxbury youth ensembles, as well as ethnic percussion and dance residencies with drummer Ryan Edwards and choreographers Jean Appolon (JAE Expressions) and Jorge Arce, among others. Sol y Canto will share a Day of the Dead concert with Mariachi singer Verónica Robles, and a collaborative event with La Piñata and Ms. Robles' dance program, both at Villa Victoria. Guy Mendilow Ensemble will present excerpts from his CD Tales from the Forgotten Kingdom (ladino music) and a dance collaboration to be announced.

These programs connect Celebrity Series with community collaborators and root the organization more deeply in local neighborhoods, helping fulfill Celebrity Series' vision of a community of Greater Boston where the performing arts are a valued, lifelong, shared experience - on stages, in schools, in homes - everywhere.

SPECIAL EVENTS

The 2017 Gala will be held on April 8, 2017. Join the Celebrity Series for a spectacular evening that will recognize the Celebrity Series' history and its impact on Boston's cultural community. Supporters, patrons and community leaders will come together to celebrate the future of the Celebrity Series of Boston during this black-tie event. Proceeds from the Gala will benefit the education, programming, and outreach efforts of the Celebrity Series of Boston.
