What is AileyCamp Boston?

AileyCamp Boston is a free, six-week, summer day camp that combines dance instruction with personal development workshops, creative communication classes, and field trips. AileyCamp Boston is designed to develop self-respect, confidence, discipline and imagination while fostering an appreciation for the joy of dance. The mission of AileyCamp Boston is not to train students to be professional dancers, but to challenge the participants and to strengthen their self-esteem. AileyCamp programs are currently operated in Atlanta, Georgia; Kansas City, Kansas; New York City and Staten Island, New York; Bridgeport, Connecticut; Chicago, Illinois; and Berkeley, California.

Who is eligible?

Boys and girls, ages 11-14. Eighty students will be selected for the 2010 season of AileyCamp Boston this summer. Students must be attending a Boston middle school. Prior dance training is not a consideration for admission. Admission is based on application and one-on-one interviews.

When is AileyCamp Boston?

AileyCamp Boston will begin on Thursday, July 1 and end on Friday, August 6, 2010. Camp starts at 8:30 a.m. and ends at 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Campers are expected to attend all six weeks of camp and participate in the final performance on the evening of Thursday, August 5.

What does it cost to attend AileyCamp Boston?

AileyCamp Boston is free! Dance attire, transportation, field trips, breakfast, lunch and snacks are provided for all campers.

Where will AileyCamp Boston be located?

AileyCamp Boston will be held at the Jeremiah E. Burke School, 60 Washington Street, Dorchester, MA. B Campers will be transported to and from camp daily by bus from neighborhood pick-up locations.

Who sponsors AileyCamp Boston?

In partnership with the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, AileyCamp Boston is an initiative of the Arts, Education and Community Program of Celebrity Series of Boston, Boston's leading not-for-profit performing arts presenting organization. We are grateful to our host site, the Jeremiah E. Burke School and its Headmaster, Lindsa McIntyre.
